Date of the event: - 1st December 2025

Venue: - KMIM seminar hall

Time: - 2pm onwards

Introduction

The Samskruthi club organized an engaging and knowledge-enriching event based on the teachings and characters of the Bhagavad Gita and Mahabharata. The session aimed to promote spiritual awareness, teamwork, analytical thinking, and cultural values among students through interactive activities and competitions. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from MBA students and was attended by all the faculty members, the Director of Keshav Memorial Institute of Management, Dr. V. N. Shantisree, and was also briefly graced by the Director of Keshav Memorial Educational Society, J. Nageswar Rao.

Event Highlights

The event was conducted in three exciting rounds. The first round was a “Cypher Challenge,” where participants decoded meaningful words and concepts related to the Bhagavad Gita using hints and coded letters. Concepts such as Karma, Self-Control, Leadership, Detachment, Equanimity, and Self-Realization were included, making the activity both educational and interactive.

The second round was a “Who Am I?” quiz competition, where participants identified famous characters from the Mahabharata and Bhagavad Gita based on descriptive clues. Characters such as Yudhishtira, Karna, Dronacharya, Draupadi, Abhimanyu, and Lord Krishna were featured in the quiz.

The third round featured a Sloka Recitation Competition, where students recited slokas with confidence, devotion, and clarity, showcasing their understanding of spiritual literature and Sanskrit pronunciation skills.

The event created an atmosphere of learning, enthusiasm, and healthy competition among students. Participants displayed excellent teamwork, quick thinking, and cultural awareness throughout the session.

The winners of the competition were:

- First Prize: Puneet and Vignesh Rajkumar, MBA II Year
- Second Prize: Mahesh and Sai Teja, MBA I Year
- Third Prize: S. Vinod, Ruthwik, and Rahul, MBA II Year

The event concluded successfully with appreciation for all the participants, faculty members, and organizers for making the session informative, interactive, and memorable.
