Time: - 1.30 pm onwards

Introduction

The Samskruthi Club successfully organized vibrant and creative Mehendi and Nail Art Competitions to encourage artistic expression and showcase the talents of students. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from both 1st year and 2nd year MBA students, creating an atmosphere filled with creativity, color, and excitement. The competitions aimed to provide a platform for students to display their skills in traditional and contemporary art forms while promoting cultural and aesthetic appreciation among participants.

Event Highlights

The Mehendi Competition featured participants presenting intricate and elegant henna designs displaying creativity, precision, and traditional artistry. Students showcased a variety of patterns ranging from classic bridal motifs to contemporary designs. The Nail Art Competition highlighted innovative and fashionable nail designs using vibrant colors, patterns, and decorative elements that reflected the artistic imagination of the participants.

The competitions were judged based on creativity, neatness, originality, and presentation. Faculty members appreciated the efforts and enthusiasm shown by all the participants. The event created a lively and engaging environment, encouraging interaction and healthy competition among students. Winners were congratulated and appreciated for their exceptional talent, while all participants were encouraged for their active involvement and creative spirit.
