Introduction

The Samskruthi Club organized the Rama Navami celebrations with great devotion and enthusiasm to commemorate the birth anniversary of Lord Rama and to spread awareness about the values and teachings of the Ramayana. The program aimed to encourage cultural appreciation, spiritual understanding, and student participation through various engaging activities. The event commenced with a soulful invocation song followed by a graceful dance performance, creating a devotional and festive atmosphere among the audience.

Event Highlights

The major highlight of the event was an exceptional skit presented by the students, depicting the Ramayana through Sita's perspective. The performance beautifully portrayed the different phases of Sita Devi's life — from her birth and marriage to Lord Rama, to her journey through exile, hardships, sacrifices, and eventual separation. The skit offered an emotional and thought-provoking narration that highlighted Sita's strength, devotion, and resilience throughout the epic.

The presentation was staged in a traditional theatrical format, with curtains creatively used to mark transitions between scenes, adding depth and authenticity to the performance. The students delivered powerful dialogues and expressive acting that kept the audience completely engaged throughout the enactment.

The skit received an overwhelming response from the audience, with the auditorium filled with continuous applause, cheers, and enthusiastic appreciation for the students' outstanding performance. Deeply moved by the captivating enactment and emotional portrayal, the audience eagerly requested an encore of a few memorable scenes. Responding to the appreciation and excitement of the audience, the students gracefully re-performed selected scenes, making the presentation even more lively, engaging, and memorable.

The program concluded with a prize distribution ceremony for the winners of the competitions conducted during the Ugadi celebrations. The winners of the No-Fire Cooking Competition, Toran Making Competition, and Treasure Hunt were appreciated and awarded for their creativity, talent, and enthusiastic participation.
